MSE Brand Benefits & Features

- MSE extended yield cartridges offers up to 50% yield increase when compared to the OEM.
- Engineered for optimal yield for MPS and cost per page sales models.
- First released in March 2001, the 4100 series replaces the LaserJet 4050 series released in June 1999.
- MSE as always approved this product using the markets most exhaustive testing protocols including; environmental stress testing, accelerated aging testing, shipping simulation, and ISO 19752 testing.

Our line of extended life cartridges are supported by the market's most advanced and patented technologies, custom formulations of raw materials, and rigorous "real world" testing protocols. The goal is to provide a product that offers consistently excellent output from start to finish with no degradation. Many of MSE's proprietary systems and materials allow us to eliminate many industry wide historical challenges associated with duplexing, which has become more common in offices to save paper and costs prevalent in MPS engagements.

The ISO 19752 standard is a standardized page yield test for monochrome (b/w) laser printer cartridges. The test is done with a minimum of nine cartridges tested on three separate printers with a standard print/test page under specific environmental conditions and printer settings. MSE monochrome cartridges meet/ exceed OEM yield based on ISO 19752 test methodologies.
